

EC's Support to the National Implementation of the European Approach for QA for JP

Claire Morel

Head of Unit for international cooperation in education and youth, DG Education and Culture

Erasmus
Mundus

European Approach reflected in Erasmus Mundus Joint Master Degrees

Elements of the European Approach requested in EM Joint Masters eligibility conditions & award criteria:

- Importance of 'jointness'
- Recognition of HEIs by relevant national authorities
- Cooperation agreement
- ECTS
- Student support

QA & assessment of Erasmus Mundus Joint Masters

Internal QA feedback	External QA feedback
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Advisory boards including student representatives• Student/scholar satisfaction surveys• Student/scholar complaints	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• External experts (all aspects)• National accreditation agencies• World of work

All EM Joint Masters QA criteria are in line with European Approach

Inclusion of Erasmus Mundus Joint Masters' students in QA

- The EMA Course Quality Advisory Board
- Students involved in monitoring visits
- Students' voice as a qualitative indicator

Share QA information

- Share EM Joint Master Degree assessment & monitoring information with stakeholders, such as QA agencies

Support for European Approach in EM Joint Masters' applications

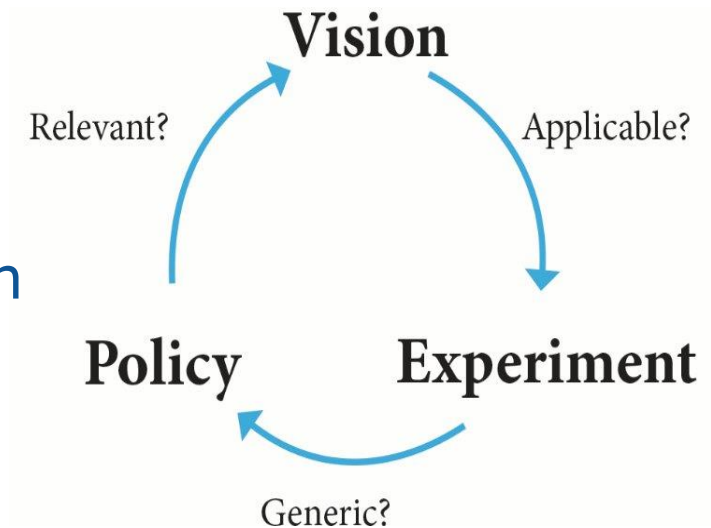

Proposals:

- Underline importance of European Approach in Erasmus+ guide
- Refer to European Approach in the handbook for selected projects
- Include European Approach in FAQ

European policy experimentation

- Encourage applications for Erasmus+ KA3 funds for Policy Reform
- Led by public authorities to experiment policy implementation through field trials in several countries based on sound evaluation methods.
- Funds can be used to support the European Approach for QA of JP
- Deadline to apply for funds:
17 February 2016

Organisation of stakeholder meeting

Proposal:

- Organise a meeting between different QA agencies to share good practices
- Raise awareness about national difficulties
- Support from ENQA & EQAR

Raise awareness

- Emphasise the importance of the European Approach towards policy-makers
- Promote the European Approach at EM Joint Master Degrees info days, grant holders meetings & monitoring visits
- Include information on the European Approach on all EM Joint Masters' websites

More information:

Erasmus Mundus Joint Master Degrees:

eacea.ec.europa.eu/erasmus-plus/actions/key-action-1-learning-mobility-individuals/erasmus-mundus-joint-master-degrees_en

Erasmus + Key action 3 funding:

https://eacea.ec.europa.eu/erasmus-plus/actions/key-action-3-support-for-policy-reform_en

